Parents who live or work outside the UK for any length of time will need to appoint someone in South East England as guardian who will act on their behalf in case of emergency, when you cannot be contacted. The minimum age of any guardian must be 21. The guardian will also be responsible for looking after the student during holidays and exets whilst in the UK. If you are unable to appoint a guardian, the school can advise on organisations to help you. Please tick the box if you require assistance.
