We are a community of unique individuals, each with our own characters, personalities and strengths, and brought together by our Methodist ethos of doing all the good you can.

Our ethos of kindness, community and inclusive nurturing, alongside excellent teaching and learning, a flexible curriculum and fantastic facilities are the key to success for our students.

Individual excellence is at the heart of the Kent College community.

We value:

Achievement,
Support for all,
Purposeful citizenship,
Individuality,
Reliability, resilience, respect, and
Enquiring and creative minds.

We are seeking to appoint an outstanding, ambitious and motivated individual, with a passion for inspiring students in A-Level Psychology. The ability to teach a second subject, especially Sociology, would be an advantage.

There are close links between our Sociology and Psychology departments, both of which are popular and enjoy high levels of success in the school. Teachers at Kent College are well supported with access to a rich variety of teaching materials, including good ICT resources and a library well stocked with subject-specific works.

We are delighted to welcome applications from candidates who share our core values and who are able to contribute to our continued future success. We recruit staff of the highest calibre who will inspire, support and challenge the pupils, and fellow colleagues, to achieve their full potential.
